Contents

	Foreword Alexander Frazier	vii
	Introduction Mary-Margaret Scobey, Grace Graham	ix
Part I:	Perceptions of Humanness and Humaneness	1
1	What It Means To Become Human E. Paul Torrance	3
2	What It Means To Be Humane Harry Golden	11
3	What It Means To Become Human Alfred G. Smith	13
4	What It Means To Become Human: The Rational Animal Alburey Castell	18
5	What It Means To Become Human: A Black Perspective William Lopes	24
6	Comments on "What It Means To Become Humane" Herbert A. Thelen	27

Part II: Revolutions Affecting the Nurturing of Humaneness 33

7 Changes Affecting Human Interaction 35
Dan W. Dodson

8 Human Revolution: Confronting the Realities of "Them" and "Us" 52
Sidney M. Jourard

9 The Technological Revolution 63
Robert U. Ayres

10 Educating for Humaneness in the Technological Society 75
John W. Loughary

11 The Knowledge Explosion 86
Kenneth E. Boulding

12 Educational Implications of Changing Knowledge 93
Francis S. Chase

Part III: Inhibiting and Facilitating Forces in Nurturing Humaneness 109

13 Forces Affecting American Education 111
Jean Dresden Grambs

14 Organizing Schools To Develop Humane Capabilities 120
Raphael O. Nystrand, Luvern L. Cunningham

15 Curriculum Development and the Humane Qualities 143
Arthur W. Foshay

16 Using Equipment, Materials, and Facilities To Develop Humane Capabilities 154
William C. Miller

Part IV: Educational Imperatives in Nurturing Humaneness 171

17 An Educational Imperative: The Humane Dimension 173
Arthur W. Combs

18 A Social Imperative: Respect for the Individual 189
Bennetta B. Washington

19 An Educational Imperative: Commitment to Change 202
Lavone A. Hanna

20 An Educational Imperative: Commitment to a Humane and Open Society 212
Lavone A. Hanna

21 Dimensions for the Future 231
Raymond W. Houghton

22 Toward a Humane School 237
Grace Graham

Notes About the Authors 245

Notes on the ASCD 1970 Yearbook Committee Members 249

ASCD Board of Directors 251

ASCD Executive Committee 251

Members Elected at Large 251

State Representatives to the Board 252

ASCD Headquarters Staff 257